

Art Event Company Limited

Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Financing of Terrorism Policies

To ensure that Art Event Company limited complies with the Anti-money laundering (AML) and the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) criteria, we strictly supervise our employees to comply with the AML/CFT policies using the following regulations:

1. The company requires all business partners to clearly identify their identities and state their business objectives.
2. The company has a policy in managing the risk of those engaged in the business regarding money laundering activities.
3. The company has an audit system for those engaged in the business regarding any false statements.
4. The company has a document retention system.

The company has set policies to prevent money laundering and countering terrorism and proliferation of weapons for mass destruction in order to

1. Allow the company's operation to comply with the law, bureaucratic rules for money laundering and anti-terrorism including business ethics and good corporate governance.
2. Prevent the company from being used as money laundering or terrorism channel.
3. As guidelines for employees to follow in their work operations.