

Vision

We strive our best to become your trustworthy business partner by providing unique, stylish and creative designs of fine jewelry, available to customers at a reasonable cost

Mission

Art Event Company Limited focuses on manufacturing high quality jewelry and accommodate innovative designs tailored to our customer's needs. We conduct our business with social responsibility. All our employees are well treated in accordance with safety, occupational health and good working environment.

Corporate Values

We manufacture high quality jewelry to meet our customer's needs while being a socially responsible company.

Announcement

Subject: Art Event's Corporate Ethics

1. Employees shall work with integrity, transparency, accountability and treat all parties with dignity, sincerity and fairness.
2. Employees shall work with strong determination by dedicating their strength, knowledge and effort to produce good working results.
3. Employees shall not accept any form of briberies or special gifts and shall not neglect when witnessing any actions that could potentially fall into the scope of corruption.
4. The company does not allow employees to engage themselves in providing any remuneration or special gifts in order to facilitate themselves or the company.
5. Employees shall not accept any form of goods that may influence or motivate their decision in causing an unjustified performance of duties.
6. Employees must not seek personal benefits from their authority or take any actions that is detrimental to the company or affects the work in their responsibilities whether directly or indirectly.
7. Employees must not engage or partnering in a competitive business without the company's official written consent.
8. Employees must only spend their working hours in providing the best interest for the company's benefit, not for personal benefits.
9. Employees must maintain the confidentiality of the company's information by not disclosing it to others, including their relatives, friends and family members.
10. Employees must effectively utilize the company's asset only for the company's benefits.
11. Employees must not bring the company's property out of the premise, without permission.

If the employees do not follow the corporate ethics conducted, disciplinary or legal offence could be charged depending upon the case. They could also be subjected to penalties as being ignorance when witnessing any wrongdoing and acting unfairly to the information provider. These are all considered as a violation of corporate ethics.

Art Event

AN INNOVATION OF JEWELRY

Please immediately inform Mr.Kangwan (Managing Director) via the provided direct hotline if witnessing any violation of the corporate ethics. The information received will be kept confidential along with the safety of the information provider is strictly taken into account.

Please be informed accordingly.

Signed/endorsed :

Mr. Kangwan Piankijagum

Managing Director

Announced on date: April 5, 2020